

EASVILLE WILL BEAT NEW "FIGHTERS."

James Edward Britt and Jabez White Clash Tomorrow Night.

BOULDER IS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

"Wally" Young Says the Pair Will Hold Pink Tea—Crew Will be Milked Again.

Britt and White will fight (7) at San Francisco tomorrow night. He is what "Wally" Young has to say about it.

The match was made in the beginning as a money-making scheme, pure and simple. It was not with any idea that White had a chance to win.

It would not be surprising if a stretch of money for local registers to the Young Corbett attempt to get matched with White in this and for at least a year.

White is a man who has been in the ring for two years ago when Young Corbett came to a chance to fight him.

SALT LAKE NOT BEATEN YESTERDAY

Simply Because it Rained at Boise and Teams Could Not Play.

ODDEN WAS NEARLY SHUT OUT.

Spokane Indians Had Everything Their Own Way With Gimlin's Lobster Crew From Ogden.

The Salt Lake ball team was not defeated by the Boise team yesterday afternoon.

It may be different today—no one can tell. The team did not meet with defeat yesterday afternoon because of rain.

Things happened at Spokane, however, where the Spokane Indians had everything their own way and played a fine game.

The Ogden team played splendidly in the first inning, but was nearly shut out in the rest of the game.

CHAPLAIN AXTON'S WORK

Ex-Salt Laker is Growing Popular at Fort Leavenworth.

Chaplain John T. Axton is very active in religious work at Fort Leavenworth where he is officiating. In fact, the Eighteenth infantry is getting the reputation of having one of the liveliest "sky pilots" in the service.

Chaplain Axton is working in various lecturing and general entertainment schemes along with his evangelical work, which interest the men, and he is thereby the better able to reach their sympathies and confidence.

A recent number of the Fort Leavenworth News says: "Chaplain Axton, anxious to procure a good thing for the boys, whenever the opportunity presents itself, succeeded in securing another choice treat for the garrison in the form of an entertainment.

Chaplain Axton has actively interested the young people's evangelist societies of Fort Leavenworth in the work at the post, as somewhat elaborately gotten up programs and circulars released in this city, would indicate.

There was a great Easter program at the post in which the entire Eighteenth infantry band furnished the music; and the chaplain has arranged a regular and enjoyable program of Sunday services which ought to interest any soldier.

The regimental band is furnishing the instrumental music for all of these, with the assistance of a piano and organ. Even the officers of the post have become so interested that they are extending hearty and effective aid to Chaplain Axton.
